President's Message — Terry Phelps

Welcome 2018!!! Looking back as a kid I always thought this would be so far away. Hope you all have a fulfilling new year.

There are still some chairmen spots to fill, so if you see one you think you might like to do let me know, or ask questions and we will be happy to explain the job. I will talk about the open ones at the January meeting. With a chairmanship you get to learn so much about the guild and get to meet a lot of our awesome members.

I am excited about this new year, serving as your president, and please talk to me or call me if you have any questions, new ideas. We are always looking for new ideas to draw the membership in.

Blessings,
Terry

January 2018: Cindy Needham We have Cindy Needham. Many of you have worked with Cindy at Kerrie's Quilting. She has one of the largest collections of quilting templates I have ever seen even at PIQF. She worked with Superior Threads. She is well known in the quilting world. Our lecture will be For The Love of Linens.

Cindy shares her personal journey creating heirloom whole cloth quilts out of vintage linens. Each quilt has a story to tell and she shares those as well as sharing techniques for creating these beautiful quilts. Guests are encouraged to touch and fondle the quilts afterwards.

January workshop Free motion Quilting—Heirloom Feathers & Backgrounds

Cindy takes her students into her world of heirloom feathers and backgrounds teaching basic techniques. Students spend the day with a morning lecture and the afternoon quilting beautiful feathers/backgrounds on provided pre-assembled Cherrywood quilt panels using Superior Threads. Extensive handouts are provided. In addition to the class fee of $25, there is a $15 supply fee for the class.

Pattie will teach us starting with a muslin foundation how to transfer our pattern using the flip and sew method by hand or machine. We will learn how to handle fancy fabrics, such as velvets, silks and upholstery fabrics. You will also learn how to embellish your crazy quilt blocks with embroidery, buttons, lace and silk ribbon.
