President's Message — Terry Phelps

Greetings,

Hope you are all working on your quilt show quilts. We have seen some great quilts at Show and Tell so I think the community would love to see them. Really think about putting them in the show. Even if you are a beginner, or think you made too many mistakes, no one knows except you. Everything we make is beautiful and fellow quilters love to see our works. Also if you have not signed up to help at the Quilt Show please do. It does take all of us to make this show run. It is a wonderful show and a lot of work goes into it by the committee chairs. All of us need to do a shift or two if possible. Get your buddy and sign up together. It is so much fun and you meet wonderful people from all over. There are different areas to work and all of it is fun.

And who has not done a pineapple quilt? I know I have not, and it is on my list to try.

So Jane I guess we should have a class!!!!!!

See you in August,

Hugs

Terry

Round Robin—Rebecca Scroggins

For August, we will be taking our own projects home to finish. I stated that the reveal will be in January 2020, however if you wish to do so in the October quilt show, or at show and tell, please feel free.

Thank you for participating and I hope you had fun!

Program: Jane Alameda introduced our guest speaker Marie Strait with her trunk show displaying examples of her 35 year quilting journey. Tomorrow guild member Linda Morrison will teach a class on making a quilt and tote from old jeans. The class will meet at the Scotts Valley Women's Center. Attendees should arrive at 9:30 with the class starting at 10:00 am.

Upcoming Programs:

August: Scarlet Rose will be the guest speaker with her lecture "A View from Both Sides - Quilt Competition and Judging". There will be no class in August however there can be a workshop after the guild meeting if needed to work on quilts for the show.

January: Lisa McKissick will again be our speaker.

February: Linda Ballard will be speaking and will be teaching a class on Sunday. Jane has a book of all the classes she offers. She may offer two different patterns to be taught in the class. The first 10 to sign up for the class get to decide what patterns will be taught in the class.

Hospitality: the sign-up sheet is being passed around the room for next month's meeting.

Ways and Means: Chairman Gail Coyle announced that the guild income from items sold at LakeWorks was $36 for last quarter.

Quilt Show: Linda Morrison substituted for Chairman Barbara Haddon who is out of town. Several show chairmen made announcements. Sign-up sheets for volunteers for all areas are in the back of the meeting room. There are 84 days left until the show. She showed a few examples of art and modern quilts and will have more at the next guild meeting so entries can be categorized appropriately.

Shery Loewen needs volunteers to perform white glove duties in both buildings.

Cheri Lowe announced that there will be only one Welcome Table. It will be located outside between the two buildings under a tent. She will need volunteers to man the entrance to each building to check for wrist bands.

Country Store sign-ups are needed. Gretchen will have supplies available at the next guild meeting for members who want to sell items.

Sue Schedler needs a couple of volunteers to man booths for vendors during demos or any breaks they may need.

Betty Fessler announced that there is a new Theme Basket provided by Cindy Martelle with the theme of "Dogs".

Dottie Kauffman needs volunteers to work at the County Fair to sell tickets for the Op Quilt.

Suzanne Lee will have a camera at the August guild meeting to take pictures of quilts being entered in the show. She also needs guild members to sign up to deliver flyers and bookmarks to quilt shops around the north state. The list of shops and flyers/bookmarks are at the back of the room. Suzanne also announced that she will no longer be the Publicity Chairman. A new chairman is needed for next year. Suzanne will be happy to mentor someone.

Suzanne Holt has signs available in the back of the room for members to post around the county to advertise the show.

Marion Onstad and Rachel Heher have pre-sale tickets available. They are $8 instead of $10, the price at the door.

Susanne Scholz will be in charge of quilt check-in and check-out and needs volunteers.

Some positions are sit-down and others require carrying quilts to and from the tables.

Barbara Dore' has had 15 entries turned in so far for Vignettes. She has the capability to have at least 30. She has entry forms available both here at the meeting and online.

Marj Sweeney is in charge of quilt hanging and takedown. She needs volunteers to help with this and also to fold quilts once they have been taken down.

Sharing and Caring: Chairman Dottie Kauffman announced the birthdays for July: Pam Ayle on 7/8, Cheryl Jones-Murray on 7/28, Jo Syphax on 7/19 and Rebecca Scroggins on 7/20

Ladies of the Lake Quilt Guild, July 13, 2019

BOARD MEETING

MINUTES

Call to Order: President Terry Phelps called the meeting to order at 12:40 pm

Present: Terry Phelps, Jane Alameda, Kathy Pratt, Kitty Jones, Betty Fessler, Marj Sweeney, Dottie Kauffman, Linda Morrison, Shirley Viada

Old Business:

Dottie was in charge of purchasing a raffle ticket drum. $50 had been approved for this. The drum she ended up purchasing cost $175. Terry motioned that the extra $125 be approved for this expense. Marj seconded the motion. It was approved by a unanimous vote of the Board.

Marj has no update on the topic of looking into other locations for guild meetings. Terry will also continue to investigate this.

New Business:

Kitty said that two cash boxes have been requested for the Welcome Table. This is ok since there are no longer two tables and the single table may be much busier.

Kitty will talk to the guild's accountant about how to report the money collected at the Country Store since the guild only keeps 25% and 75% goes back to the members that sell items.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:10 pm

Respectfully submitted,

Kathy Pratt, Secretary
