BYLAWS OF LADIES OF THE LAKE QUILT GUILD

A California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this corporation shall be the LADIES OF THE LAKE QUILT GUILD, hereafter, the GUILD.

ARTICLE II. PURPOSE

- 2.01 The purpose of the GUILD shall be:
- A. To contribute to the knowledge of quilting.
 - B. To promote the appreciation of fine quilts.
 - C. To encourage quilt making and collecting.
 - D. To contribute to the growth and knowledge of quilt techniques, textiles, patterns, history, and quilt making through education, meetings, and fellowship.
- 2.02 The GUILD is not organized for personal profit. All activities of the GUILD shall be conducted in such a manner so that no part of the net income benefits any individual except that an individual may be hired as a principal lecturer/teacher by the Executive Board.
- 2.03 No part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements) on behalf of any candidate for public office.
- 2.04 This corporation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c) (3), Internal Revenue Code as stated in Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

- 3.01 Membership in the GUILD is open to individuals who are interested in quilts, and quilting, and who subscribe to the purpose of the GUILD. Membership becomes valid upon payment of dues and completion of the yearly membership form. See Policies and Procedures, General Membership for detailed information.
- 3.02 GUILD members shall receive a GUILD member roster with the understanding that the list will NOT be used for commercial or solicitation purposes except by our affiliates. GUILD members who wish to be excluded from affiliate contact should indicate this on the membership form.
- 3.03 Junior members, 17 years old and under, shall be sponsored by a GUILD member and supervised at all GUILD events. Junior members shall have all the privileges of adult members.

3.04 THE ANNUAL DUES SHALL BE AS FOLLOWS:

A. Dues and membership forms are due on or before the February general meeting date or membership will be dropped until such dues are paid. B. $20.00 for Charter Members:

1. Those members who joined and paid on or before May 18, 2001. Charter Members are indicated on a Roster with an *.
 2. Those members whose dues and membership forms are not submitted and paid by the February general meeting will be dropped from Roster
- C. $25.00 for Adult Members
D. $5.00 for Junior Members
E. Dues will be prorated to $12.50 for adults, $ 2.50 for juniors joining after July 1.

3.05 All annual dues to the GUILD are set every two years by vote of the membership; this follows recommendation of the Executive Board in conjunction with the bylaw revisions. Dues change will be effective January 1 following the approval of the bylaw revision. All dues paid to the GUILD become property of the GUILD and shall be used exclusively for activities directly related to and in support of the purposes of the GUILD as defined in Article II.

3.06 A newsletter is available to members on the LLQG website and by other methods listed in Policy & Procedures.

ARTICLE IV. AFFILIATES

4.01 Affiliates are businesses or community organizations wishing to support the GUILD.

4.02 Affiliates are welcome to attend GUILD general meetings. Oral solicitation is not permitted; we welcome flyers, newsletters, and handouts for GUILD members to pick up at our welcome table.

4.03 Affiliate owners or designated employees are not considered GUILD members. Affiliates may not have voting privileges, will not hold a committee chair position, and will not hold office, or constitute a quorum.

4.04 Upon joining, affiliates in good standing are entitled to the following:

- A. Receive a modified GUILD member roster for commercial or solicitation purposes. It will include ONLY the names of GUILD members, emails and birth dates. Members who do not wish to share their personal information will not be listed.
- B. Be named in our newsletter and website. They will also receive the GUILD's monthly Sew & Tell Newsletter either by email or by post if there is no e-email.
- C. Advertise twice a year maximum up to one quarter page in the newsletter at no additional charge.
- D. Given priority status in applying for quilt show vendor spaces.

- 4.05 The annual dues shall be $30 per calendar year. No prorates will be allowed. All annual affiliate dues to the GUILD shall be set by vote of the membership following recommendation of the Executive Board. All dues paid to the GUILD become property of the GUILD and shall be used exclusively for activities directly related to and in support of the purposes of the GUILD as defined in Article II.
- 4.06 Affiliate dues are renewable on the GUILD's February general meeting for the upcoming GUILD year. Those Affiliates whose dues are not paid by this date will automatically be dropped from the affiliate list until such dues are paid.
- 4.07 To enjoy all GUILD benefits, affiliate business owners may also join the GUILD as an individual GUILD member.
- 4.08 Affiliate owners or designated employees may be hired as program lecturer or workshop teachers.

ARTICLE V. MEETINGS

- 5.01 The GUILD shall hold a minimum of ten general meetings a year, at a time and place designated by the Executive Board.
- 5.02 The agenda for the Executive Board meeting shall be posted at the Welcome Table prior to each general meeting. All members are invited to attend.
- 5.03 The general meeting held in November shall be known as the "Annual Meeting" and shall be for the purpose of electing officers and for any other business that may arise.
- 5.04 Fifty-one percent (51%) of the GUILD membership present shall constitute a quorum. There shall be no proxy votes.
- 5.05 The president must call a special meeting of the Executive Board upon written request by three members of the Executive Board or by written request by any ten members of the GUILD within 10 calendar days of the request. The Executive Board shall be notified of the special meeting date, time and purpose by email or telephone at least 24 hours in advance of the meeting. If no resolution is reached, the president must present the issue to the general membership at the next general meeting. The meeting shall be recorded by the secretary.
- 5.06 Workshops, classes, excursions and special events for which the Executive Board may set an admission charge shall not be considered as a general GUILD meeting.

ARTICLE VI. ORDER OF BUSINESS AND DISCIPLINARY ACTION

- 6.01 The current edition of "Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised", shall govern the GUILD in all cases not covered by these bylaws.

- 6.02 The GUILD requires that all officers, chairpersons and members refrain from conduct injurious to the GUILD or its purpose.
- 6.03 In order to protect the GUILD and the pursuit of its purpose, it may become necessary to take disciplinary action against an officer, chairperson, or member.
- 6.04 Should attempts to resolve the matter informally fail, the elected members of the Executive Board and the parliamentarian shall conduct a confidential investigation and an informal hearing in executive session, according to procedures as defined in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised.

ARTICLE VII. NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

- 7.01 In August, the president shall appoint a nominating committee for the purpose of nominating officers for the next calendar year. The committee shall consist of five members: two Board members and three members from the general membership.
- 7.02 Nominating Committee
 - A. The nominating committee shall submit a slate of nominees for elected offices to the Executive Board at its September meeting.
 - B. The nominating committee shall then submit the proposed officer nominees to the general membership in the newsletter prior to the November meeting.
 - C. At the November meeting, the committee will present the slate and open the floor to further nominations.
- 7.03 Election of officers shall be held at the November annual meeting. Election shall be by voice vote for all uncontested offices. In the event of a contested office, the vote shall be by secret ballot conducted by the nominating committee.
- 7.04 The nominating committee shall remain in existence until all elected officer positions have been filled.
- 7.05 The installation of new officers shall take place at the end of the December general meeting.
- 7.06 The newly elected officers will assume their duties at the January general meeting.

ARTICLE VIII. OFFICERS

- 8.01 The officers of the GUILD shall be the President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. These officers shall perform the duties prescribed by these bylaws and the parliamentary authority adopted by the GUILD.

- 8.02 Officers shall be elected at the November meeting and their term of office shall be for one year beginning January 1st.
- 8.03 A member may be elected to serve in the same office for no more than two consecutive terms of office. If no other member is nominated, another one-year term may be permitted.
- 8.04 If the Executive Board determines that any elected officer is not fulfilling the duties of the office, the Board shall propose removal of that officer. Removal must be approved by a majority vote of the membership present at a general meeting.
- 8.05 In the event of a vacancy in any office, with the exception of president, a member of the Executive Board shall interview prospective applicant/s with the intent of determining qualifications of the applicant/s for the vacancy. The applicant must be approved by a majority vote of the Executive Board.

2. Participation with Other Guilds

- A. Invitations from other guilds to participate and share activities shall be presented to the Executive Board for approval, then listed in the newsletter and written details may be made available at the welcome table.

3. Financial

- A. The following items used for GUILD activities will be reimbursed from the appropriate pre-approved budget line item, such as: materials for GUILD related projects, telephone calls, postage, and members' costs associated with speakers including meals, lodging, and mileage.

II. GENERAL MEMBERSHIP AND MEETING POLICIES

1. Communications

- A. The GUILD, P.O. Box 875, Kelseyville, CA 95451 and website www.LLQG.org will be used as official GUILD contacts in most instances.
- B. All communication to the general public shall be handled in a professional manner. To ensure this policy, GUILD members shall have flyers, letters, etc., reviewed by the Executive Board for accuracy before printing and distributing, including use of logo.

2. Fundraising

- A. Any member may propose an idea for an event or fundraiser to the Executive Board for approval. This should be done before announcing such an event at a general meeting.
- B. Any member may submit a quilt design and a proposed budget for a future opportunity quilt to the Board for approval.
- C. Displaying and marketing opportunity quilts will be allowed at general meetings only by recognized quilt guilds with prior approval of the Executive Board.

3. Member Participation and Meetings

- A. Members shall participate in and support the projects and activities of the GUILD.
- B. Members may attend all general meetings of the GUILD, have the privilege of voting and holding office and will receive the monthly newsletter.
- C. Members may use the GUILD's library, participate in classes, workshops, activities, and other special events.
- D. Members wishing to speak at a general meeting must contact the president prior to the day of the meeting to be included on the agenda.
- E. Members are encouraged to wear name tags at general meetings.

- F. During speaker presentation, the use of cameras and/or tape recorders is by permission of the guest speaker only.
- G. In order for everyone present to be able to enjoy themselves and hear the speaker, members and guests must remain quiet and attentive during the meeting.
- H. GUILD members are strongly encouraged to make at least three baby quilts for community service to maintain 501c3 non-profit status.
- I. Members are strongly encouraged to purchase $20 worth of opportunity quilt raffle tickets per year in support of our Guild activities.
- J. Guests are welcome to attend two (2) general meetings per year, after which they are expected to become dues paying members.

4. Solicitation

- A. Solicitation, as it pertains to the GUILD, is the request by members, visitors, or affiliates to advertise the purchase or services for personal profit (Article II – 2.02).
- B. No oral soliciting is permitted at meetings. Members may not advertise commercial business unless the member is also an affiliate. The one exception to this solicitation rule will be the paid program presenter. Members may not advertise for personal profit or gain unless the member is also an affiliate.
- C. Welcome Table: flyers for upcoming quilt shows or quilt related information from other guilds or affiliates are permitted at the designated welcome table.

III. EXECUTIVE BOARD POLICIES

1. Reappoint Chairperson

- A. In a case-by-case situation, the president shall appoint a new chairman if the current chair is unable to fulfill the requirements of the position.

2. Retiring President

- A. The immediate past president will enlist volunteers from the membership to determine a gift for the retiring president. The past president will be in charge of organizing and obtaining the gift. Sufficient funds will be allocated in the budget to cover expenses. One gift is sufficient should the current president serve a second-year term.

3. Newly Elected Officers

- A. Newly elected officers are strongly encouraged to attend the December Executive Board meeting.

IV. CHAIRPERSON POLICIES

1. General

- A. Chairpersons are expected to keep a journal of the current activities, forms used, and costs incurred or any other communication tools to be handed to the new chairperson at our January general meeting.
- B. Chairpersons may hold a vote or contest to encourage participation in GUILD activities. Awards will be limited to non-monetary recognition.

2. Term

- A. The Chairperson may serve a two-year term. At the end of the term, if another GUILD member shows interest in accepting the position, preference should be given to change for allowing GUILD members creative opportunities. If no others are interested, and the presiding chair would like to continue this position, another one-year term may be permitted.

3. Participation

- A. Chairperson are encouraged to attend a minimum of four Executive Board meetings a year to review policy and procedures.
- B. Chairpersons are expected to communicate and work with committee members. The appointed chairperson shall review current policy. Any changes require Executive Board approval prior to announcing to the general membership.

- A. Chairpersons shall submit a request to the budget committee by November 1 each year, projecting their planned funds/expenses for the upcoming year.
- B. Chairpersons without a budget shall have all GUILD expenses approved by the Executive Board prior to any purchases or reimbursement.
- C. Upon approval of the budget (Bylaws Article XI. Finances), chairperson may submit expenses to the treasurer up to the approved budgeted amount. Expenses that exceed a budget shall require Executive Board approval before the expense is paid.
- D. Chairpersons must submit receipts and account for funds to the treasurer.
- E. The treasurer will provide selected committee chairperson with a refundable deposit, not to exceed $35, to facilitate their committee sales during the year. This deposit must be returned to the treasurer by the end of the current fiscal year. The amount of the refundable deposit cannot exceed $35 without approval from the Board.
- F. Chairpersons shall review the monthly and yearly treasurer recap to ensure accurate accounting practices.
- G. Chairpersons are ineligible to receive any payment for services performed under their normal scope of responsibility.

CHAIRPERSON JOB DESCRIPTIONS AND PROCEDURES

All chairpersons are encouraged to attend Board meetings. It is recommended that the following GUILD activities be reviewed yearly for interest and participation: Block-of-the-Month, Challenge, Mystery, and Round Robin.

AFFILIATE LIAISON

- Recruit new affiliates.
- Working within a budget, the liaison handles the main correspondence between the affiliates and the GUILD.
- Keeps a roster of affiliates in good standing including additions, and renewals and provides information to the GUILD newsletter editor.
- Working with membership chairman, provide affiliates with a modified GUILD roster for solicitation purposes.
- May place flyers on hospitality table at request of affiliate.
- Reminds affiliates of benefits as referred to Article IV.
- Notify affiliates on December 1 dues are due by the February general meeting date. If dues are not received by the January general meeting date, the affiliate is dropped as an affiliate until dues are paid.
- Notify the newsletter editor of affiliate changes.

BLOCK OF THE MONTH

- Create a block each month.
- Set up table display at general meeting including instructions and samples.
- Provide patterns and directions to the membership via email, newsletter editor, and website chairman.
- Collect blocks and hold drawing for the monthly winner of the blocks. Work with the Executive Board and within an approved budget.

CHALLENGE

- Create the challenge rules, including the schedule and deadline and present them to the Executive Board for review.
- Work within a budget. If necessary, kits may be sold to GUILD members. Submit articles to newsletter after sending to Executive Board for review.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

- Coordinate the preparation and donation of baby quilts to Adventist Health Clear Lake, 15630 18th Avenue, Clearlake, CA 95422.

- Assemble kits for home sewing by members.
- Prepare labels.
- Prepare supplies for a GUILD workshop day.

- Keep records of quilts made
- Submit articles to newsletter when necessary.
- Set up table display at general meetings to have kits available.

EQUIPMENT CHAIR

- Keep a record of all locations of GUILD equipment.
- Records should include but not be limited to keys, ironing boards, quilt show supplies, opportunity quilts, quilt car cover, banners, etc.
- A list of GUILD equipment shall be given to and reviewed by the Executive Board meeting to show the location of GUILD property.
- Equipment will be used for OUR GUILD USE ONLY. No loaning or renting of equipment.

FREEBIES

- Be responsible for the collection, distribution, and disposal of donations to the GUILD which can be made by members of the GUILD or by the community at large.
- Be responsible for prioritizing items:
 - Any fabric or supplies that are appropriate to use for our baby quilt community project should be donated to the community service chairman.
 - Any items donated that are appropriate to use for fundraising such as Ways and Means, Treasure Chest, Quilt Show Theme Baskets, Quilt Show Country Store, Silent Auction or any quilt show related fundraising - door prize, etc., should be donated to those chairpersons for their use.
- After sorting donated items, organize and set-up a Freebie table during general meetings for GUILD members to take the “leftovers”.
- This chairman does not have a budget
- Any person donating more than $250 in value will obtain a receipt from the treasurer. Donations letters for lessor amounts will be given upon request.

HISTORIAN

- Arrange pictures to be taken at meetings, classes, quilt show, or any event of the GUILD. Keep a scrapbook of published articles, pictures, etc., pertaining to GUILD events and archive all printed newsletters.
- Work within a budget and keep receipts of expenses to be turned in to treasurer.
- Create a scrapbook or an electronic device and make it available for viewing by GUILD members.

HOSPITALITY

- Arrange food set-up and clean-up duties for all general meetings.
- Arrange for refreshments at all general meetings and work within an approved budget.
- For our GUILD May birthday and December Christmas general meetings, duties will also include planning the events with the program chairman. (Example: planning and organizing gift exchange in December, planning activities related to a birthday party in May.) Submit articles to our newsletter.

LIBRARY

- Arrange to provide books and/or equipment to loan to members during general meetings and work within an approved budget.
- Keep a record of books checked out and to whom. Review and update inventory.
- Prepare sales of old books to raise funds.
- Only GUILD members may check out books.
 - Books may be checked out for a two-month period (meeting to meeting).
 - Renewal after the two-month period is at the discretion of the librarian. To renew, the book must be brought back to the library (no book, no renewal).
 - Books shall be returned in good condition. Loss or severe damage to the book will require that the borrowers pay or replace the book.
- Overdue books
 - A book is considered overdue if not returned by the second general meeting after it is checked out.
 - The borrower will be notified by phone first. If the book is still not returned, the borrower's name will be printed in the newsletter.
 - The borrower will be sent an invoice for the replacement cost of the book after the 3rd month is overdue.

MEMBERSHIP AND WELCOME HOSTESS

- Greet members and guests at general meetings with a big smile!
- Keep track of guest attendance and encourage guests to follow policy and join after two (2) visits.
- Use sign in sheets to record monthly attendance of members. Share information with programs and sharing/caring committees to identify the needs of members.
- Be responsible for general meeting sign-in and show & tell sign-up sheets.
- Report totals of members, affiliates, and guests in attendance to the secretary to be recorded in minutes.
- Create and dispense new membership cards.
- Provide new members with a welcome folder.
- Keep records on charter membership using a numbered system and an * on the roster.
- Shelley Aldrich is listed on the roster with  to indicate founder and lifetime member.
- Working with the Treasurer, create an annual roster in February. Update quarterly and distribute one to each member via email or USPS.
- Work with affiliate liaison to create a membership roster for affiliate solicitation purposes deleting GUILD members' names who do not wish to be solicited.
- Keep the roster up to date and notify newsletter editor of changes.

- Publish member information changes and new member information in newsletter so members may update their copy of the roster.
- Make appropriate announcements in the newsletter, such as dues renewal reminders.
- Monthly drawing for a fat quarter to member wearing name tag at end of general meeting.
- Collect yearly dues. Notify members in the December newsletter, dues are due by the February general meeting or member will be dropped from the Roster until dues are paid.
- Welcome Hostess
 - This could be a shared position.
 - Set up and man the welcome table.

MYSTERY QUILT

- Present project to the Executive Board for scheduling and work within approved budget.
- Determine quilt mystery pattern, deadlines and distribute monthly clues.
