Well we had another good speaker and an excellent trunk show for our March Program. Many people seemed interested in having a workshop in doing the rectangular jacket. That also just happened to be the one that the speaker, Petra Keller, said she might be willing to do. Kerry Hansing will check up on that for us. We also had great participation in the diagonal scrap quilt block for Lakeworks as many blocks were turned in, perhaps enough for two quilts. Refreshments were again plentiful during the break, thank you to all who contributed. Our Treasure Chest ladies, Linda and Kerry, out did themselves again with a "Going with the Green" assortment of treasures up for raffle, most of which included a homemade mini bundt cake from Linda Wankel, yum! We have a Block of the Month, Round Robin is starting, Mystery Quilt is starting and there is a Challenge Quilt project as well. We are a happening place to be so be there or be square, next Meeting is April 8th.

Membership: Kitty Jones & Valerie Vinzant

A BIG WELCOME to Barbara Mahoney who joined in February. Her contact information is in the March Roster.

Secret Pals Jean Elsa

Don't forget to pick up /exchange your surprises !

Round Robin Kitty Jones

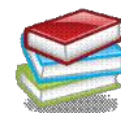

There's still time to sign up & participate in the 2017 Round Robin. I had a table set up for signing up at the March meeting and will have it again in April. Do remember from my demo in February that the sample displayed at the sign up table is just that, MY sample. You will not be making/receiving a top that looks just like it. You will be choosing your OWN theme & end up with your own unique top at the end of the rounds. It's a very fun process & a great learning experience. So jump in and join the fun.

See you in April, Kitty

Library Ginny Leber & Suzanne Lee

The library has received books from Julie Nodine's collection. In particular, are 4 books by Ruth McDowell who is known for her original pieced art quilts. Also are books on Molas, a tessalation book by Jinny Beyer and a book on folding, tucking and manipulating fabric by Jenny Rayment. We are honored to have these books.

We will have a book sale at the June meeting. Books from Julie Nodine will be in this sale. If you have books to donate to the sale bring them to the May or June meeting.

Suzanne Lee has agreed to assist in our library Thank you Suzanne.

Programs—Kerry Hansing

Sandy Klop will be our April Speaker—a pattern and fabric designer for Moda, Sandy has many years of teaching and speaks regularly on the topic, “The American Jane Story in Fabric”. Sandy hales from Holland, Michigan where they celebrated tulip time with an array of Dutch costumes. For the Sunday class you have a choice of two different patterns, please contact Valerie Vinzant for sign up: vvinzant@gmail.com. Sandy shows how to make the Feathered Stars an easy project, you will need to do some homework ahead of the class so that you can finish two blocks.

May Program—Celebrating our Guild Birthday Details will be published.

Reminder—If your last name begins with A -J you are asked to bring the snacks.

June Program—Marcia Stein

Marcia is a San Francisco textile artist whose award-winning work has been shown in a number of juried exhibitions at galleries, museums, and quilt shows. Marcia’s designs combine her interest in photography with her quilt art.

Block of the Month Debbie Vivrette

Winner of the March blocks was Phyllis Tapia!

Give April’s “Goofy Bunny” block some personality with placement of the eyes and whiskers.

Instructions/handouts are available at our meetings or please see the website LLQG.org if you need the information.
